Miss Wall's Rescue.

With a check for $1,000 Colonel E. A. Wall of Salt Lake City rewarded for bravery Robert Baird, the night clerk at the Hotel Virginia, in rescuing his daughter Mary, 18 years old, Mrs. Lindsay Rogers and her daughter Helen of Fresno from the surf last week. Colonel Wall is a mining operator. Last Saturday his daughter, accompanied by Mrs. Rogers and her daughter, were taking an early morning plunge in the surf. Owing to the heavy surf, Mary Wall was drawn into a deep hole. Mrs. Rogers attempted to save the girl, but got beyond her depth. Helen Rogers went to the assistance of the others, but was unable to save them. She called for help and attracted the attention of Baird. The latter rushed into the water without stopping to remove his clothing and succeeded in dragging the women ashore.

Colonel Wall and Mrs. Wall, attracted by the screams, witnessed the rescue from the window of their room in the hotel.

OGDEN, UTAH.

Mrs. Jessie G. Langford of Salmon City, Ida., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Langford.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Fitzgerald and family and Mr. and Mrs. George P. McCabe have returned from the canyon, where they have spent the past two months. Mr. and Mrs. McCabe will return to Washington, D. C., in about two weeks.

J. H. McLaughlin, well known to many in Ogden, now an operator in the Western Union at Salt Lake City, was a guest over Labor day of Mr. and Mrs. Henry McLaughlin in this city.

J. Scott Farney of the Utah Construction company, and Miss Naomi Hamilton of Evanston, Wyo., were married last Sunday at the St. Joseph's church, Father Cushman officiating. Later in the afternoon a wedding dinner was enjoyed at the Hermatage.

After an illness from acute Bright's disease covering a period of three weeks, J. E. McCarty, general trainmaster of the Southern Pacific company, died at his home on Adams avenue Friday afternoon, Sept. 4, shortly after 4 o'clock. Mr. McCarty was one of the most popular and well known railroad officials in this state. He was promoted to the position of general trainmaster upon the death of E. S. Lutz, and served as trainmaster on the division of the Southern Pacific from Carlin to Montello. For many years he worked as a passenger conductor before his promotion to trainmaster. He is survived by a wife and four children, John McCarty, Mrs. Bessie Hudson, Will McCarty and Miss Helen McCarty. The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon from St. Joseph's church, Rev. P. M. Cushman officiating. The large attendance at the church and the burial services attested the popularity of the deceased. The Knights of Columbus and the Order of Railway Conductors attended the funeral.

Burke-Hannifin.

The marriage of Miss Minnie E. Burke of Ogden and Patrick Hannifin of Pocatello took place at St. Joseph's church on Tuesday, Sept. 1, at 10 o'clock. Rev. P. M. Cushman officiated at the solemn ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Smythe, intimate friends of the couple, attended the bride and groom. Mrs. Burke wore an elegant gown of rose satin, made empire, with a beautiful hat and veil. After the ceremony the happy couple left for a brief wedding trip and will soon be at home at Pocatello.

Mrs. Hannifin is a fine musician, having an exquisite soprano voice. She has been often heard at St. Joseph's, and is also a pianist of great ability. Mr. Hannifin is one of Pocatello's best known business men. The Intermountain Catholic joins with hosts of friends in extending best wishes for all happiness to Mr. Hannifin and his charming wife.
